AUTHOR-TEACHER- MINISTRY VOLUNTEER

Bonny Summers lives on the Cumberland Plateau in beautiful Tennessee. She's loving retirement, gardening and taking care of her many animals with husband, Jack. She also volunteer's her time and talents in many ways throughout her community and church.

Her published works include short stories and Bible Studies. She spent most of her working career with students. Her resume' includes two Academy's as a girls dean (many of her girls still keep in touch and call her "mom") and, then as a teacher's assistant and facilitator.

She has been blessed with two grown children, four grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren. Widowed after forty-six years of marriage to the love of her life, and father of her children, God has softened her sorrow with another wonderful man. They have just celebrated their seventh anniversary. She has lovingly embraced his family as her own.

"You have turned my mourning into joyful dancing. You have taken away my clothes of mourning and clothed me with joy." Psalm 30:11
